Rules observed at the Bank.

The Bank will be open every day in the year, except Sundays, Christmas Day, Good Friday, the 4th of July, and other holy days appointed by legal authority.

Hours of business, from ten to one o'clock in the forenoon, and from three to five o'clock in the afternoon.

Discounts are done on Thursday in every week, and notes for discount must be left at the bank on Wednesday, under a cover directed to the President and Directors: The rate of discount is at present fixed at six per cent. per annum; but no discount will be made for longer than thirty or forty five days.

Money lodged in the bank may be re-drawn at pleasure, free of expence.

Payments made at the bank must be examined at the time, as no deficiency suggested afterwards will be admitted.
